

Watershed Science Standards Institute

This session is designed to enhance individual teacher's qualifications by increasing knowledge and understanding of the sixth grade science core content and related concepts from grades 4-7. Active learning strategies, low-cost hands-on activity lessons and assessment methods will be included. Classroom instruction, field investigations and other aspects of meaningful, inquiry-based education will be modeled and discussed.

Teachers of Grades 4-7

July 28 – August 1, 2008

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Daily

Lousia County Middle School, Mineral, VA

- Standard registration is free
- Classroom mini-grant available
- 3 graduate credits in Life Science Education available from VCU ($100 per credit hour tuition)

Registration:

www.vanaturally.com/vanaturally/ssi08_registration.doc

For more information, contact Kris Jarvis at 804-698-4274 or kdjarvis@deq.virginia.gov.

Sponsored by the Virginia Department of Environmental Quality Office of Environmental Education through a NOAA BWET grant, with support from the Departments of Education, Game & Inland Fisheries, Forestry and other environmental and educational organizations.